Guidance notes for funding application

The following are a few notes to take into consideration when applying for funding.

- ❖ All applications for funding should be to relieve transplant patients and former transplant patients, of the Freeman Hospital, Newcastle upon Tyne who are sick or convalescing or in need of financial assistance or advice or facilities for recreation in order to improve their conditions of life and generally to support the charitable work of the Freeman Hospital and that of the medical staff of the Cardiac/Pulmonary Transplant Unit
- ❖ All applications will be considered by the Management Committee of the FHLTA at the earliest committee meeting, the date of which can be found on our website, following receipt of your application
- ❖ Should your application be successful we will require a breakdown of all receipts plus an evaluation report within three months of the funding being granted. All successful applicants will receive a formal evaluation form with their grant award letter.
- ❖ All applications should be sent to the Secretary, Mrs Judith Burgess at the following address:
